

SALVATION ARMY DONATION

The Colonial Savings Foundation recently presented the Salvation Army a grant of $5,000. The grant is given to the Salvation Army to help support housing services to provide homeless men, women and children clean, dignified surroundings where they will receive meals, counseling and assistance finding employment.

From left: Nancy Woodson, Senior Resource Development Director, Robert Turner, VP – Manager, CRA Officer, Major Jonathan Rich, DFW Metroplex Commander, Beckie Wach, Executive Director.

Optimist Club of Fort Worth

The Colonial Savings Foundation recently donated $1,000 to the Optimist Club of Fort Worth's 67th annual Scholastics, Sportsmanship and Athletics (SSA) Scholarship. Scholarships are given to graduating seniors from a Fort Worth h ISD high school who "exhibit outstanding qualities as scholars, sportsmen and athletes." The Optimist Club of Fort Worth was established in 1935. Currently, members of the club are men, women, business owners, professionals, managers and executives of all ages. The mission of the Optimist Club of Fort Worth is "to continue to improve the Fort Worth community by providing Athletics, Scholarships, and Mentoring programs to Under- served & Under-privileged Youth."

From left: Martha Shaw, Counselor at Eastern Hills High School, Brahaam Favela, Scholarship Recipient from Eastern Hill s High School and Lisa Forrest, Colonial Banking Center Manager.