

SafeHaven donation

In late December, the Colonial Savings Foundation donated $2,000 to benefit SafeHaven of Tarrant County. SafeHaven's mission is "to end domestic violence through safety, support, prevention and social change." Founded in 1976, SafeHaven is the largest and most comprehensive agency in Tarrant County providing no-cost services to victims of domestic violence. To read more about SafeHaven, visit www.safehavenc.org.

From left: Robert Turner, VP – Manager, CRA Officer at Colonial, Kathryn Jacob, President and CEO of SafeHaven and Megan Bent, Vice President of Development, SafeHaven.