

The Salvation Army

The Colonial Savings Foundation recently presented a donation to The Salvation Army at the JE & LE Mabee Social Service Center located in Fort Worth.

The Salvation Army assists approximately 25 million Americans every year and consists of more than 1.5 million members. To learn more, visit www.SalvationArmyUSA.org.

Pictured from left to right: Robert Turner, Vice President – CRA Officer for Colonial Savings, Major Jonathan Rich, DFW Metroplex Commander and Beckie Wach, Executive Director.

The Center for Transforming Lives

On March 21, the Colonial Savings Foundation gave a donation to The Center for Transforming Lives (CTL). For more than 110 years, the organization has provided anti-poverty programs for women and children in Tarrant County. To read more about CTL, visit www.transforminglives.org.

Pictured from left to right: Carol Klocek, Executive Director for CTL and Jessica Loving, Colonial Savings - Senior Compliance Analyst.