

Colonial in the Community 2018

NAMMBA

Colonial and CU Members was in attendance at the National Association of Minority Mortgage Bankers of America (NAMMBA) CONNECT 2018 in Atlanta, Georgia, where Colonial also served as a sponsor. This year's conference saw attendance double from last year, and brought some of the industry's most diverse women and minority talent together all in one place.

Colonial President and MBA Chairman David Motley at OMBA's Annual Conference

Colonial President and MBA Chairman David Motley served as a speaker at the Oklahoma Mortgage Bankers Association's (OMBA) Annual Conference. The Annual Conference brings together area mortgage and real estate professionals and expert speakers for networking opportunities, team building and education.

Motley was also awarded an authentic Native American headdress that he now displays proudly in his office.

Supporting the 15th Annual Fort Worth Housing Summit

Colonial was excited to support the city of Fort Worth's 15th annual Housing Summit, where Retail Loan Officer Amanda Anderson was a featured speaker and President David Motley gave the closing remarks.

Workshops included "Home Buying 101: Ready to Buy in Today's Real Estate Market," "Obtaining a Mortgage Loan" and "Down Payment Assistance and Homeownership Counseling." The 15th Annual Housing Summit was sponsored by the City of Fort Worth, Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and Fort Worth Housing Solutions.
